

Jihei Murase

Japanese, born in 1957 in Tokyo

Education

- 2001 Inherited the name, Jihei III, and the position of 7th generation lacquerware base maker
- 1980 Graduated from the Sculpture Department of Tokyo Zokei University.
- Received instruction in the Way of Tea from Suzuki Sokan of Hibi-an, a Master of the Urasenke School of Tea.
- Joined the long-standing family lacquerware wooden base and coating business.
- 1975 Graduated from Tokyo Metropolitan High School of Music & Fine Arts

1

Selected exhibitions

- 2017 Art Basel, Basel, Switzerland
- As a craft artist, acted as the master for the special event "Tea Ceremony by Contemporary Tea Experts", Nezu Museum, Japan
- 2016 Exhibition of "Kōgei (Modern Crafts) and the Tea Ceremony from the Museum Collection" held at The National Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo, Japan
- Enter collection Philadelphia Museum of Art, USA
- 2015 Kōgei (Modern Crafts) and Tea Ceremony from the Museum Collection, The National Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo
- 2014 Yale University Asian Art Museum
- London Art Fair
- 2010 Exhibition of About the Tea Ceremony A Viewpoint of Contemporary Kōgei, The National Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo

PIERRE MARIE

GIRAUD

Public collections

U.S.A. Philadelphia Museum of Art

U.S.A. Yale University Asian Art Museum

Japan The National Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo